Part V, Section B, line 5: The community health needs assessment (CHNA) was completed in December of 2012 with input from primary and secondary data including U.S. Census, Pennsylvania Department of Health vital statistics, Claritas Inc., and tumor registry data from Fox Chase Cancer Center (FCCC). The target area included in the CHNA is the primary service area for the institution and comprises 87 zip codes in Bucks, Montgomery and Philadelphia counties with a total population of 1,857,000.

In addition to the quantitative data utilized for the CHNA, additional community input was derived from three meetings with our Community Advisory Council (CAC) members and the Southeastern Pennsylvania Household Health Survey with questions based on validated instruments such as the National Center for Health Statistics (NCHS) for the National Health Interview Survey (NHIS), The Behavioral Risk Factor Surveillance System (BRFSS), The California Women's Health Survey, The Social Capital Community Benchmark Survey (Kennedy School of Government, Harvard University) and The Survey on Childhood Obesity (Kaiser Family Foundation/San Jose Mercury News). In total, 4,354 interviews were conducted with adults from the targeted region.

The final CHNA is available to the public via the organizations website <https://www.foxchase.org/community/communityhealth>. Additional dissemination of its findings have been presented to the Board of Directors, senior leadership, CAC members and to multiple entities within FCCC including: American College of Surgeons (ACoS) Commission on Cancer, Cancer Committee, Cancer Prevention and Cancer Control (Behavioral Research team) and staff from the Office of Health Communications and Health Disparities, the primary education and outreach arm for the institution. our sole focus is cancer. Within the cancer control realm, we address the entire cancer continuum from prevention to survivorship. An implementation plan has been developed to address the needs which include lack of knowledge regarding cancer, access to care, specifically screening, complexity of the healthcare system, obesity which has been associated with increasing the risk of certain cancers, cultural and language needs to address the evolving changes in the community population. During the reporting period, the CHNA was completed, an implementation plan has been developed and approved by the Board of Directors and teams have been tasked with implementing specific tasks and/or projects to address the identified needs. Additionally, the plan has been posted to the FCCC website <https://www.foxchase.org/community/communityhealth>

Group A-Facility 1 -- The American Oncologic Hospital

Part V, Section B, line 11: Fox Chase Cancer Center (FCCC) Office of Community Outreach (OCO) has addressed the following unmet needs identified in the 2013 Community Health Needs Assessment (CHNA):

Demographic Changes - the anticipated growth in older populations does not present a challenge for Fox Chase. According to the 2015 Tumor Registry data, 87% of our patient mix in the service area is between the ages of 50-99.

Language Needs - In preparation for the changing language needs, we have embarked on a quality improvement plan for language services. We have established an institutional policy to address languages services that includes on-site medical interpreters, language lines and remote video units for our deaf community and amplifiers for our hard of hearing patients. Thus far we have instituted the policy and identified and credentialed physicians who speak a second language, other than English. Individual languages that address this need speak the following languages/dialects: Spanish, Mandarin, Cantonese and Vietnamese. Other languages are available however; this speaks directly to the identified need in the CHNA. Non-clinical staff who speak another language, are offered the opportunity to train as dual-medical interpreters through an approved vendor.

Insurance Plans - FCCC accepts a variety of medical insurance including Medicare, Medicaid and private insurers. Additional funding from state and foundation grants enables us to offer cancer screening and treatment for breast cancer. Financial counseling is available to persons who do not fall within these categories.

Health Status and Behaviors - Nearly two in five adults in the service area smoke cigarettes, and more than half of them have tried to quit in the past year without success. In response to this need, FCCC Office of Community Outreach has hired and trained health educators to offer community smoking cessation services. The services provided adhere to current evidence-based practices including the nicotine replacement therapy. The OCO continues to provide bilingual (English and Spanish) lung cancer education via our Community Speakers Bureau. This one-hour session provides an overview of cancer, reviews lung cancer risk factors, prevention, symptoms, screening guidelines and treatments for lung cancer.

Provide descriptions required for Part V, Section B, lines 2, 3j, 5, 6a, 6b, 7d, 11, 13b, 13h, 15e, 16i, 18d, 19d, 20e, 21c, 21d, 22d, 23, and 24. Access and Barriers to Health Care - There is an unmet need in the service area for screenings and preventive care. Through our Speakers Bureau, the OCO provides participants with valuable information regarding screening guidelines for breast, cervical, colorectal, ovarian, prostate and skin cancers. To further our education, the OCO brings cancer screening to the community via its mobile screening unit (MSU).

Recognized as a best practice to reducing structural barriers, the OCO brings breast cancer and skin cancer screening to the community. In total, we reached 3,254 persons with breast, prostate and/or skin cancer screenings. Individuals requiring language services will be provided with a certified medical interpreter at no cost to the patient. Individuals identified with abnormal findings that require follow-up will be supported with navigation services including transportation to and from FCCC at no cost to the patient.

Difficulty navigating the health care system - in addition to the language and transportation services provided to patients in-need; our community navigator greets MSU patients requiring follow-up care and remains with them as they receives services. Patients diagnosed with cancer are assigned a nurse navigator to support ongoing needs i.e. scheduling, testing and overall coordination of care etc.

Clear Communication - The New Patient Guide was prepared with support from OCO to ensure clear communication (plain language) regarding services. A new patient portal has been implemented to facilitate communication between the patient and the health care team. Staff from the Resource and

Additionally, REC Staff provides credible resources to assist patients and family members with patient education materials and support to increase their knowledge so they become more active participants in their health care. These services are also available to non-patients from the community.

UNMET NEEDS AND IDENTIFICATION PROCESS The unmet health care needs for this service area were identified and prioritized by comparing the health status, access to care, health behaviors, and utilization of services for residents of the service area to results for the county and state and the Healthy People 2020 goals for the nation. In addition, for Household Health Survey measures, tests of significance were conducted to identify and prioritize unmet needs. Lastly, input from the community meeting participants was also used to further identify and prioritize unmet needs, local problems with access to care, and populations with special health care needs.

As a specialty hospital that focuses on cancer, FCCC does not specifically provide community or patient services that address overweight or obesity. However, these services are addressed by our health system at other hospitals including one adjacent to our campus - Jeanes Hospital. Our health educators, do address the importance of maintaining a healthy weight and the negative impact of obesity on cancer along with general information regarding a balanced diet and exercise guidelines via our Community Speakers Bureau.

Part I, Line 3c:

Not applicable. The American Oncologic Hospital does use Federal Poverty Guidelines.

The Hospital provides patient care services without charge, or at amounts less than established rates, to patients who meet the criteria of its charity care policy. Criteria for consideration under the charity care policy is based primarily on family income and worth, but also recognizes other circumstances where undue financial hardships exist. The Hospital maintains records to identify and monitor the level of charity care it provides. Because collection of amounts determined to qualify as charity care are not pursued, patient service revenues are reduced by such amounts. The Hospital also provides services and supplies below cost to patients covered by government insurance programs, including the Medicare and Medicaid programs.

Part I, Line 6a:

The community health needs assessment (CHNA) was completed in December of

Part VI Supplemental Information (Continuation)

2012 with input from primary and secondary data including U.S. Census, Pennsylvania Department of Health vital statistics, Claritas Inc., and tumor registry data from Fox Chase Cancer Center (FCCC). See Part V, Section B for further information.

Part I, Line 7:

The net community benefit expense was $6,869,410

As set forth in the Fox Chase Cancer Center Emergency Care, Charity Care and Financial Assistance Policy, it is the policy of Fox Chase Cancer Center to provide all necessary urgent care to patient without regard to their ability to pay for such care. Given this mission and within the guidelines of prudent business management, it is further the policy of Fox Chase Cancer Center that an orderly and controlled system for the write-off of all types of Bad Debt and Charity Care balances is in effect to insure maximum collections. All patients have the option to apply for the Fox Chase Cancer Center Charity Care Program. The guiding principles behind this policy are to treat all patients equally, with dignity and respect, to assist patient who cannot pay and to balance appropriate financial assistance for patients with fiscal responsibility. Patients and their families have a responsibility to assist Fox Chase Cancer Center in qualifying them for financial assistance.

Fox Chase Cancer Center's cost to charge ratio for Part 1, lines 7a through 7d is derived by total expenses divided by the total gross charges.

Part II, Community Building Activities:

Part VI Supplemental Information (Continuation)

The net community building expense was $340,579. See Part VI, Line 5 for description of the organization's community building activities and how they promote the health of the communities served.

Part III, Line 2:

Bad debt expense is calculated based on the amount of bad debt transfers, as well as the amount of balances that are currently in the patient responsibility bucket based on aging.

Part III, Line 4:

There is no footnote specific to bad debt at this time.

This expense is related to services rendered for which payment is anticipated and credit is extended. These patients do not meet the established Charity Care policy and may therefore have the ability to pay. The cost method is determined based on the patient's liability for services rendered and is a community benefit because it is a cost of providing health care to the general public.

Part III, Line 8:

In 2014, the cost of providing services to the Medicare population was $6,856,000 (Part III, Line 7) higher than revenue. Medicare allowable cost (Part III, Line 6) was based on cost apportionment derived from the Medicare Cost Report. The Medicare shortfall carried by FCCC provides a community benefit because it benefits a charitable class, the elderly.

Part III, Line 9b:

Yes, the organization's written collection policy contains provisions on the collection practices to be followed for patients who are known to qualify for charity care or financial assistance.

Part VI Supplemental Information (Continuation)

Part VI, Line 2:

Participation in local, state and regional coalitions enable us to keep abreast of trends and priority needs of the community. Local - Currently, we are involved with multiple efforts including SmokeFree Philly. Funded by CDC, this Philadelphia Department of Public Health program is focused on helping smokers quit. Resources from this coalition are utilized by our community outreach smoking cessation program. Additionally, we have provided physicians as resources for public radio programming. We are also on the Advisory for the Center for Aids Research, providing insight and support for community engagement and also learning about the needs of Aids patients, specifically cancer related needs. State - the Senior Director of OCO is a member of the Strategic Leadership Team for the Pennsylvania statewide Comprehensive Cancer Control (CCC) team. This team is responsible for assisting with planning efforts to address the cancer burden in the state. The Senior Director is also a member of a sub-committee working on increasing the community's awareness of HPV vaccinations. The CCC holds quarterly meetings to review data and discuss strategies and progress made on implemented initiatives. Additionally, PADOH provides ongoing webinars on specific cancers in collaboration with other federal, state or local entities. Several staff are members of the PA Patient Navigation Network - this network is made up of nurse and community navigators and provides resources via an annual symposium and provides a forum to discuss challenges and strategies to support patient access and care. Regionally, our Senior Director for Outreach services is a member of the DHHS Region III Health Equity Council (RHEC) and leads the

Part VI Supplemental Information (Continuation)

Cultural Competence sub-committee. RHEC reviewed data from multiple state and federal resources and developed a Blue Print Executive Summary that outlines the challenges in the region. Here at FCCC we have and will continue to expand the implementation of the DHHS Office of Minority Health Cultural and Linguistically Appropriate Standards for Healthcare - these include our language services and health literacy efforts. Staff members from OCO are members of the Patient Satisfaction Leadership Team and the Quality Improvement teams. Involvement in these teams enable us to hear about community/patient concerns so we can continue to improve the experiences had by our community/patients.

Part VI, Line 3:

Fox Chase Cancer Center's mission is to prevail over cancer. Activities include basic, clinical and prevention research; detection and treatment of cancer; and community outreach programs. Consistent with this mission, the AOH will consider the inability of its patients to meet the financial burden of cancer care that may arise during treatment. The AOH is committed to treating patients who experience financial difficulties with the same dignity and care extended to all other patients.

Procedure: When a patient calls in to schedule an appointment, the new patient office will notify patient financial services (PFS) of anyone who is either a) not insured b) participates in a health plan that AOH does not accept or is out of network or c) communicates a concern regarding the ability to meet financial obligation. All such patients will be contacted by a financial counselor. No financial assistance will be extended to a patient until a plan of treatment has been established.

External community screening is provided via the mobile screening unit.

Part VI Supplemental Information (Continuation)

This vehicle is outfitted with state-of-the-art breast cancer screening equipment equal in quality to the equipment on-site. During 2014, we provided breast and skin cancer screenings to 3,360 persons in community settings (CBO, FBO, business/corporations, academic institutions).

Through the Office of Health Communications and Health Disparities we have secured external funding via grants (i.e. PA Healthy Women Program (PAHWP), foundations) and other fundraising activity to off-set and/or cover associated costs to screening and diagnostic testing for the uninsured. PAHWP currently provides AOH with 240 slots to be allocated as following: 120 for women 40-49 and 120 for women 50-64.

Procedure: At time of screening, a patient who presents as "uninsured" will be provided with an application for the Pennsylvania Healthy Women Program (breast and cervical cancer screening program). If the eligibility criteria are met, all screening costs are covered. If further diagnosis is required, PAHW will also provide coverage. Should a cancer diagnosis be discovered, AOH prepares and submits a Medicaid application. Reimbursement for treatment will be retroactive. Should the patient not be eligible for Medicaid, AOH will work with Patient Financial Services for financial counseling.

Part VI, Line 4:

The majority of AOH patients reside in the target area identified in the CHNA (see needs assessment section for demographics and target region). A special emphasis has been given to a zip code region referred to as neighbors' surrounding AOH. Education, screening and research programs enable AOH to create stronger partnerships with organizations and provide opportunities for these organizations to become involved in shaping future activities. Several individuals from these efforts have joined steering and advisory committees, advocating on behalf of the community.

Part VI, Line 5:

With the addition of funds secured via state contracts and foundations, we have provided breast cancer screening and treatment to medically underserved women within our service area. Additional funds enabled us to establish a community outreach tobacco cessation program to address the lung cancer burden in our region. As an affiliate of the Temple University Health System, our medical and non-medical staff are offered participation and CME at the annual Cultural Competence Symposium. The symposium focuses on working effectively with communities; this past year focused on the African American community.

Low-income, uninsured or underinsured women screened on the Fox Chase Cancer Center (FCCC) Mobile Screening Unit (MSU) for breast cancer are covered under funds secured via state contract via the Healthy Women Program (HWP), a federally funded program of CDC's National Breast and Cervical Cancer Early Detection Program (NBCCEDP). Eligible women receive free or low cost mammograms and if diagnosed receive treatment. In the event of a cancer diagnosis or a high-risk finding AOH (OCO) will submit the application to the Healthy Women Program. HWP will forward the application to the appropriate Pennsylvania County Health Department. Once approved the patient receives instructions to enroll in a Medicaid plan. If needed, financial services can provide additional support.

Additional funds secured through foundations such as Susan G. Komen enable us to provide screening and diagnostic services to medically underserved women in our service area. Should a woman be diagnosed, she would be Community Building Activity- Through our Immersion Science High School Program, FCCC provided free education programming to diverse high school students from the target region. In May of 2015, 250 high school students from the target area participated in a one day Health Careers Symposium hosted by the Immersion Science Program that included >60 hands-on courses in the full array of careers available at an NCI-designated Comprehensive Cancer Center. The Symposium is cost-free in order to ensure diversity and equality of the participants. In addition to the Symposium, 24 students from 22 Philadelphia area schools participated in an 11 session, intensive hands on training course in cancer research. The Immersion Science program provides staged, comprehensive exposure of high school students to increase retention in biomedical careers and to provide direct instruction in laboratory techniques and scientific thinking. There is no cost to participate, and, in fact, summer salaries were provided to students in the Phase 3 segment of the program. In total eleven (11) students were awarded full-time ($2,250) or half-time ($1,125) fellowships for research in Fox Chase laboratories.

The Immersion Science program reaches many additional Philadelphia area students through a Teacher Training program.
