Also complete this part for any additional information.
 (See instructions.)

Part IV, Section D, Line 3

By virtue of representation on the Foundation's Board of Directors and overlapping officers, the supported organizations have a significant voice in the Foundation's investments and distributions. The Foundation holds endowment assets that are in the nature of charitable trusts for the benefit of The American Oncologic Hospital and The Institute for Cancer Research. These assets can be spent only on programs of The American Oncologic Hospital and The Institute for Cancer Research in accordance with the direction of the original donors.

Part V, Section D, Line 8

The American Oncologic Hospital and The Institute for Cancer Research meet the required conditions. The Chief Executive Office of The American Oncologic Hospital currently serves as the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Foundation. In addition, under the Amended and Restated Bylaws of the Foundation, the Chief Executive Officer of The American Oncologic Hospital and The Insitute for Cancer Research serves as a voting member of the Foundation's Board of Directors. The amount of support ensures attentiveness because almost all of the support is earmarked for specific programs.

prevention and compassionate care.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 7a:
Explanation: Temple University Health System, Inc. nominates two members of the Board of Directors.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b:
Explanation: The Form 990 is prepared by the Fox Chase Cancer Center General Accounting department and reviewed by the Chief Financial Officer, outside tax counsel, and members of the Senior Leadership Committee. After review by management, the 990 and 990T (if any) are made available to board members electronically. A board member without internet access is provided a paper copy to review. Board members are asked to review and provide any comments to the Chief Financial Officer.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:
Explanation: All directors, officers, members of Board committees, and key employees of the organization are subject to the conflicts of interest policy. Under the policy, covered persons must complete an annual disclosure of actual or potential conflicts of interest. In addition, if any covered person has a direct or indirect interest in any proposed contract, transaction, or other arrangement involving the organization, the covered person must disclose the interest to the Board or committee authorizing the contract, transaction, or other arrangement, and the Board or committee must determine whether the interest constitutes a conflict of interest prior to taking any action. A covered person who has a conflict of interest may answer questions of the Board or committee considering the contract, transaction, or other arrangement that involves the conflict. However, after answering questions, the covered person must leave the meeting during the discussion of the merits of the matter and does not vote on the matter.
