Part 1 Line 7

Practice plan incentives may be earned by participating physicians and staff when overall financial performance (revenue less operating expenses) for the organization as a whole exceeds budgeted expectations. When the organization as a whole outperforms budgeted expectations, a portion of the savings and revenues will be made available for payout. The chair of each department will establish criteria in advance of each year (of both a qualitative and quantitative nature), as to how funds derived by the formula will be awarded to participating physicians within his or her department. The criteria will be reviewed and approved by the CEO and Board of Directors. Similarly, the CEO and Board of Directors will establish the incentive performance criteria used to evaluate Clinical Chairs, practice plan and department management, and staff.

Part 1 Line 7

Employees may receive non-fixed compensation, such as discretionary bonuses or performance-based compensation. Performance factors may include the degree to which the various employees (e.g., Clinical Chairs; Executive Leadership) achieve pre-determined goals and objectives (for which there will be both qualitative and quantitative measures) in advancing strategic, operational, academic, and financial objectives.
